CHAPTER 3

CONCEPT OF SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

11. SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT DEFINED

SCM involves the management of working capital that is invested in goods, stores and services with the objective of optimizing the economic return on such investment. The process begins when the needs are identified during the strategic planning phase of the org when service delivery targets are identified, to the point of finally disposing of an asset.

12. OBJECTIVES OF SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

As a concept, Supply Chain Management has the following broad objects:

- (a) Promoting uniformity in the processes relevant to the repealing of bid board legislation in the various spheres of government and devolving the responsibility and accountability for procurement-related functions to accounting officers or authorities.
- (b) Promoting uniformity in the various spheres of government in the interpretation of government's preferential procurement legislation and policies, also in the context of other broad-based but related legislative and policy requirements of government.
- (c) Replacing the outdated procurement and provisioning practices in government with a supply chain management function and a systematic competitive procedure for the appointment of consultants as an integral part of financial management in government that conforms to internationally accepted best practice principles.
- (d) Introducing parameters for the promulgation of a regulatory framework in terms of the Public Finance Management Act (PFMA) and MFMA to ensure compliance to minimum norms and standards, but in such a manner that the principles of co-operative governance are observed.
- (e) To give effect to the provisions of the Constitution.
- (f) To give effect to the provisions of the MFMA and PFMA.
- (g) To transform procurement and provisioning practices into an integrated SCM function.
- (h) To introduce a systematic approach for the appointment of consultants.
- (i) To create an understanding of Government's preferential procurement policy objectives.
- (j) To make significant improvement to financial management.
- (k) To promote consistency in respect of supply chain policy and other related policy initiatives.
- (l) To adhere to international best practices.

13. IMPROVING ACCOUNTABILITY

The MFMA aims to improve accountability by placing responsibility for decisions in the hands of each accounting officer, and by ensuring that there is support from National Treasury, for example in the form of "best practice" guidelines, to assist managers in delivering services to communities as efficiently and effectively as possible.

The accountability chain is the most critical driver for improving financial management in the public sector. The Annual Report and the report of the Auditor-General will indicate achievement against the intentions specified in each municipality's or municipal entity's Integrated Development Plan (IDP) and may highlight areas that require improvement.

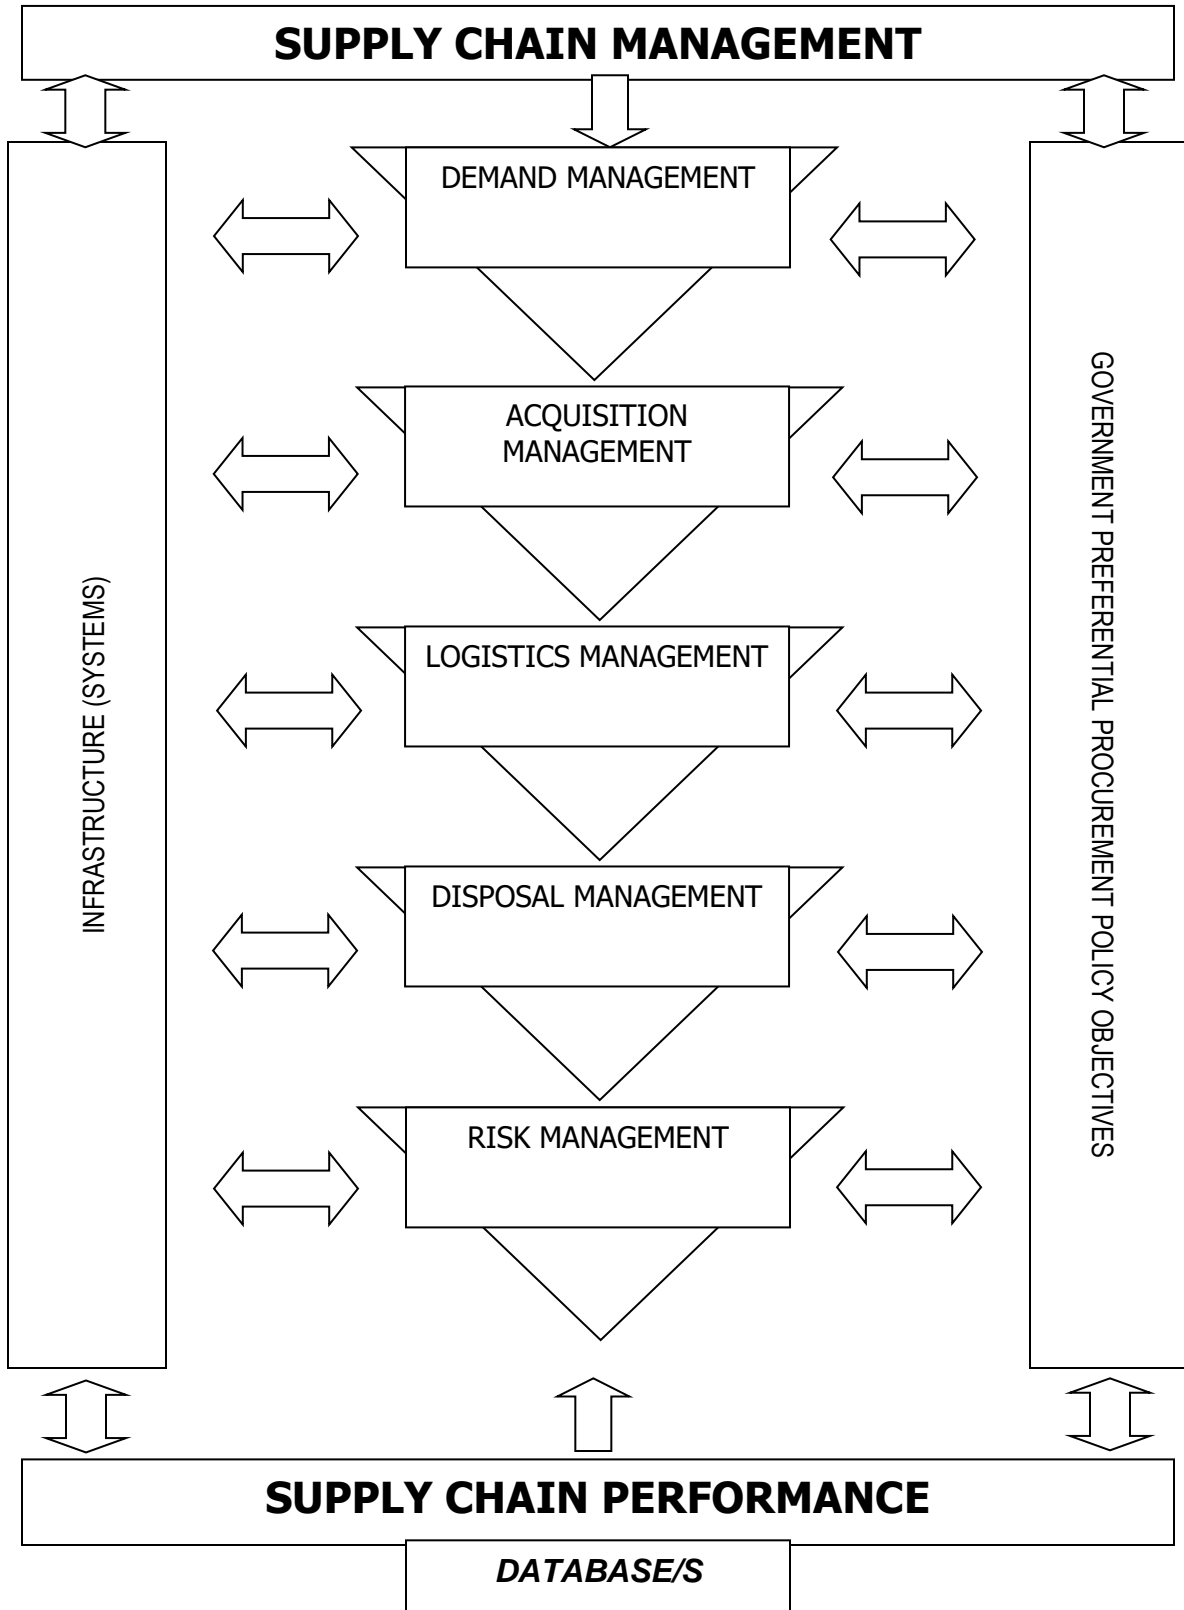

A particular requirement of the MFMA is that each accounting officer undertakes a "risk assessment" for his or her municipality or municipal entity. Risk management acknowledges that all the activities of an organization involve some element of risk. Management should decide what is an acceptable level of risk (given cost and other social factors) by objectively assessing the factors (risks) that may prevent a particular activity from meeting its objective. In the case of SCM, this will include ensuring, on a case-by-case basis, that clearly worded and unambiguous contract documents, guarantees or insurance arrangements are in place (i.e. managers must manage).

In addition, the award and management of contracts is an area where fraud and corruption has been found in the past, and the Municipality's Anti Fraud Management Strategy should reflect this, through cost-effective use of control measures and procedures and an ethical culture.

14. GOOD GOVERNANCE

In order to achieve the ideals of good corporate governance and to address deficiencies in SCM, fundamental institutional reforms will have to be implemented. Such reforms need to promote efficient and effective procurement and provisioning systems and practices that enable municipalities/municipal entities to deliver the required quality and quantity of services to its clients. The establishment of uniformity in procedures, policies, documentation and contract options and the implementation of sound systems of control and accountability should form the cornerstone of institutional reform.

15. THE ELEMENTS / FRAMEWORK OF SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

This supply chain management policy provides systems for –

- (i) demand management;
- (ii) acquisition management;
- (iii) logistics management;
- (iv) disposal management;
- (v) risk management; and
- (vi) performance management.

15.1 DEMAND MANAGEMENT

This is the beginning of the supply chain, and must begin with a needs assessment, to ensure:

- (a) that goods or services are required in order to deliver the agreed service;
- (b) that specifications are precisely determined;
- (c) that requirements are linked to the budget; and
- (d) that the supplying industry has been analyzed.

This phase will bring the supply chain practitioner close to the end user, to ensure that value for money is achieved. This policy provides for an effective system of demand management in order to ensure that the resources required to support the strategic and operational commitments of the Municipality, are delivered at the correct time, at the right price and at the right location, and that the quantity and quality satisfy the needs of the Municipality.

15.2 ACQUISITION MANAGEMENT

This refers to the management of procurement by a municipality. The Municipality must:

- (a) decide on the manner in which the market will be approached;
- (b) establish the total cost of ownership of a particular type of asset;
- (c) ensure that bid documentation is complete, including evaluation criteria;
- (d) evaluate bids in accordance with published criteria; and
- (e) ensure that proper contract documents are signed.

15.3 LOGISTICS MANAGEMENT

This aspect addresses the setting of inventory levels, placing of orders, receiving and distribution of material and goods, stores, warehouse and transport management, expediting orders, the review of vendor performance, maintenance and contract KSD administration. From these processes, the financial system is activated to generate payments.

15.4 DISPOSAL MANAGEMENT

A supply chain management policy must provide for an effective system of disposal management for the disposal or letting of assets no longer needed, including unserviceable, redundant or obsolete assets, subject to sections 14 and 90 of the MFMA.

At this stage, consideration must be given to:

- (a) Obsolescence planning;
- (b) maintaining a data base of redundant material;

- (c) inspecting material for potential re-use;
- (d) determining a disposal strategy; and
- (e) executing the physical disposal process.

15.5 RISK MANAGEMENT

A supply chain management policy must provide for an effective system of risk management for the identification, consideration and avoidance of potential risks in the supply chain management system. Risk management must include:

- (a) the identification of risks on a case-by-case basis;
- (b) the allocation of risks to the party best suited to manage such risks;
- (c) acceptance of the cost of the risk where the cost of transferring the risk is greater than that of retaining it;
- (d) the management of risks in a pro-active manner and the provision of adequate cover for residual risks; and
- (e) the assignment of relative risks to the contracting parties through clear and unambiguous contract documentation.

15.6 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

This is a monitoring process, undertaking a retrospective analysis to determine whether the proper processes have been followed and whether the desired objectives were achieved. Some of the issues that may be reviewed are:

- (a) compliance to norms and standards;
- (b) cost efficiency of procurement process (i.e. the cost of the process itself); and
- (c) whether supply chain practices are consistent with Government's broader policy focus.

165. Five pillars of procurement

(1) Value for money

The term "value for money" includes the monetary value as well as the quality and the utilisation of the procurement system to achieve government's policy objectives (see the Regulations pertaining to the PPPFA). Due consideration should, however, be given to the quality of goods required, the time to KSD initiate the process, and the cost effectiveness of the ensuing contracts. This is an essential test against which a municipality or municipal entity must justify a procurement outcome.

(2) Open and effective competition

The pillar of public sector procurement requires the following:

- (a) a framework of procurement laws, policies, practices and procedures that is transparent; in other words they must be readily accessible to all parties;
- (b) openness in the procurement process;
- (c) encouragement of effective competition through procurement methods suited to market circumstances; and

(d) observance of the provisions of the PPFA.

(3) Ethics and fair dealing

All parties involved in procurement should comply with the following ethical standards:

- (a) deal with each other on a basis of mutual trust and respect; and
- (b) conduct their business in a fair and reasonable manner and with integrity,

(4) Accountability and reporting

This involves ensuring that individuals and organizations are answerable for their plans, actions and outcomes. Openness and transparency in KSD administration, by external scrutiny through public reporting, is an essential element of accountability

(5) Equity

The word "equity" in the context of the five pillars of public sector procurement means the application and observance of government policies that are designed to advance persons or categories of persons disadvantaged by unfair discrimination. This fifth pillar is vital to public sector procurement in South Africa. It ensures that Government is committed to economic growth by implementing measures to support the industry in general. No public procurement system should be operated if it is not founded on this pillar.

CHAPTER 4

DEMAND MANAGEMENT

System of demand management

176. (1) The accounting officer must establish, through operational procedures, an effective system of demand management in order to ensure that the resources required to support the strategic and operational commitments are delivered at the correct time, at the right price and at the right location, and that the quantity and quality satisfy the needs.
- (2) The demand management system must:
- (a) include timely planning and management processes to ensure that all goods and services required by the Municipality are quantified, budgeted for and timely and effectively delivered at the right locations and at the critical delivery dates, and are of the appropriate quality and quantity at a fair cost;
 - (b) take into account any benefits of economies of scale that may be derived in the case of acquisitions of a repetitive nature; and
 - (c) provide for the compilation of the required specifications to ensure that its needs are met;
 - (d) to undertake appropriate industry analysis and research to ensure that innovations and technological benefits are maximized.
- (3) The KSD's Integrated Development Plan (IDP) is a comprehensive strategy document setting out how the KSD intends to tackle its development challenges in a financial year. It is on the basis of the IDP that the resources of the Municipality will be allocated and on which the budget is based.
- (4) The objective is to ensure that the resources required to fulfil the needs identified in the IDP are delivered at the correct time, price and place, and that the quantity and quality will satisfy those needs.
- (5) In order to achieve the objectives of good governance and to address deficiencies in supply chain management, fundamental institutional reforms will have to be implemented. These reforms will promote efficient and effective provisioning and procurement systems and practices to enable the KSD to deliver the required quantity and quality of services to the communities.
- (6) The establishment of uniformity in policies, procedures, documents and contract options and the implementation of sound systems of control and accountability shall form the cornerstone of institutional reform.
- (7) The development of a world-class professional supply chain management system should result in continuing improvement in affordability and value for money, based on total cost of ownership and quality of procurement as competition amongst suppliers is enhanced.
- (8) Resources required for the fulfillment of the Municipality's obligations will be clearly analysed. This includes a detailed analysis of the goods, works and services required.
- (9) In dealing with suppliers and potential suppliers, the KSD shall respond promptly, courteously and efficiently to enquiries, suggestions and complaints.

The Demand Management Process

18. (1) This is the beginning of the supply chain where the following major activities associated with the identifying demand should take place:
- (a) establishing requirements;
 - (b) determining needs; and
 - (c) deciding on appropriate procurement strategies.
- (2) Demand management accordingly shall involve the following activities:
- (a) SCM integration in the strategic planning process;
 - (b) understanding the future needs;
 - (c) identifying critical delivery dates;
 - (d) identifying the frequency of need;
 - (e) linking the requirement to the budget;
 - (f) conducting an expenditure analysis based on past expenditures;
 - (g) determining requirements;
 - (h) compiling of specifications;
 - (i) conducting a commodity analysis in order to check for alternatives;
 - (j) conducting a market/industry analysis; and
 - (k) providing regular feedback to and from the role players.

This is a cross-functional exercise that brings the supply chain practitioner closer to the end user and ensuring that value for money is achieved.

Strategy for achieving the Preferential Procurement Policy Framework Act (PPPFA) objectives and linking the system to Black Economic Empowerment (BEE) objectives

198. In order to achieve the objectives as stated in Chapter 1 of this Policy, the Municipality will use the public sector SCM system as a tool to achieve the BEE objectives/goals. This will be achieved within the prescribed framework of the PPFA and its Regulations.

In order to achieve the BEE objectives and goals the specifications and terms of reference for each project will be drafted prior to publication. The specifications will be drafted in a manner that will assist in achieving the BEE targets set by the Municipality. The accounting officer or the delegated official will approve all specifications drafted by the Bid Specification Committee prior to publication.

Planning and stipulation of preference point system to be utilized

20. An organ of state must, prior to making an invitation for tenders:
- (a) properly plan for, and, as far as possible, accurately estimate the costs of the provision of services, works or goods for which an invitation for tenders is to be made;
 - (b) determine and stipulate the appropriate preference point system to be utilized in the evaluation and adjudication of the tenders; and
 - (c) determine whether the services, works or goods for which an invitation for tenders is to be made has been designated for local production and content in terms of regulation 9.

CHAPTER 5
ACQUISITION MANAGEMENT

- (a) the kind of goods or services; and
 - (b) the name of the supplier.

- (2) The Municipality may, before a bid is adjudicated or at any time, require a bidder to substantiate claims it has made with regard to preference.
- (3) The Municipality must, when calculating comparative prices, take into account any discounts which have been offered unconditionally.
- (4) A discount which has been offered conditionally must, despite not being taken into account for evaluation purposes, be implemented when payment is effected.
- (5) In the event that different prices are tendered for different periods of a contract, the price for each period must be regarded as a firm price if it conforms to the definition of a "firm price" as defined in this policy.

Remedies

53. (1) The Municipality must act against the tenderer or person awarded the contract, upon detecting that:
 - (a) the B-BBEE status level of contribution has been claimed or obtained on a fraudulent basis; or
 - (b) any of the conditions of the contract have not been fulfilled.

- (a) disqualify the person from the tendering process.
 - (b) recover all costs, losses or damages it has incurred or suffered as a result of that person's conduct.
 - (c) cancel the contract and claim any damages which it has suffered as a result of having to make less favourable arrangements due to such cancellation.
 - (d) restrict the tenderer or contractor, its shareholders and directors, or only the shareholders and directors who acted on a fraudulent basis, from obtaining business from any organ of state for a period not exceeding 10 years, after the audi alteram partem (hear the other side) rule has been applied; and
 - (e) forward the matter for criminal prosecution.

Declarations

54. A bidder must, in the manner stipulated in the tender document, declare that-
- (a) the information provided is true and correct;
 - (b) the signatory to the bid document is duly authorized; and
 - (c) documentary proof regarding any bid will, when required, be submitted to the satisfaction of the Municipality.

Specific goals

55. (1) The bid conditions may stipulate that specific goals, as contemplated in terms of the PPFA, be attained.
- (2) The stipulation contemplated in section (1) must include the method to be used to calculate the points scored for achieving specific goals.

Procurement of banking services

56. (1) A contract for the provision of banking services to the Municipality:
- (a) must be procured through competitive bids;
 - (b) must be consistent with section 7 or 85 of the Municipal Finance Management Act 56 of 2003; and
 - (c) may not be for a period of more than five years at a time.

- (2) The process for procuring a contract for banking services must commence at least nine months before the end of an existing contract.
- (3) The closure date for the submission of bids may not be less than 60 days from the date on which the advertisement is placed in a newspaper in terms of section 30(1) of this policy. Bids must be restricted to banks registered in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990).

Procurement of IT related goods or services

- 57.
- (1) The accounting officer may request the State Information Technology Agency (SITA) to assist with the acquisition of IT related goods or services through a competitive bidding process.
 - (2) Both parties must enter into a written agreement to regulate the services rendered by, and the payments to be made to, SITA.
 - (3) The accounting officer must notify SITA together with a motivation of the IT needs if –
 - (a) the transaction value of IT related goods or services required in any financial year will exceed R50 million (VAT included); or
 - (b) the transaction value of a contract to be procured whether for one or more years exceeds R50 million (VAT included).
 - (4) If SITA comments on the submission and the Municipality disagrees with such comments, the comments and the reasons for rejecting or not following such comments must be submitted to the council, the National Treasury, the provincial treasury and the Auditor General.

Procurement of catering services

- 58.
- (1) That caterers be listed and allow rotation basis.
 - (2) Price for catering will be fixed and reviewed annually by the Chief Financial Officer
 - (3) Catering service providers must be appointed on a rotational basis for the provision of catering goods and services.
 - (4) The SCM Unit is responsible for giving effect to such rotational appointment.
 - (5) If catering services are required in an area where there are no registered catering service providers on the CSD, then the a nearby caterer will be appointed
 - (6) The SCM Unit shall review the rates paid for catering services annually.

- (7) The municipality must not deviate for catering and the end user department/s must submit request for catering 10 days before the event, and if the end user department insist on contravening this clause, the person must do so in writing to the CFO

Procurement of goods and services under contracts secured by other organs of state

60. (1) The accounting officer may procure goods or services under a contract secured by another organ of state, but only if –
- (a) the contract has been secured by that other organ of state by means of a competitive bidding process applicable to that organ of state;
 - (b) there is no reason to believe that such contract was not validly procured;
 - (c) there are demonstrable discounts or benefits to do so; and
 - (d) that other organ of state and the provider have consented to such procurement in writing.
- (2) Subsections (1 (c) and (d) do not apply if the Municipality procures goods or services through a contract secured by a municipal entity of which it is the parent Municipality.
- (i) The King Sabata Dalindyebo Local Municipality may apply section 32 of the Supply Chain Management Regulations issued by National Treasury provided that the bid under consideration will be referred to KSDLM bid adjudication committee and that the Bid Adjudication Committee make recommendations to the Accounting Officer for approval.

Procurement of goods necessitating special safety arrangements

61. (1) The acquisition and storage of goods in bulk (other than water) which necessitate special safety arrangements, including gases and fuel, should be avoided whenever possible.
- (2) Where the storage of goods in bulk is justified, such justification must be based on sound reasons, including the total cost of ownership, cost advantages and environmental impact and must be approved by the accounting officer.

Proudly SA campaign

62. The accounting officer must determine internal operating procedures supporting the Proudly SA Campaign to the extent that preference is given, in the following order, to procuring local goods and services from suppliers and businesses located:
- (a) within the jurisdiction of the KSD;
 - (b) within the district of OR Tambo
 - (c) within the Eastern Cape Province; and
 - (d) within the RSA.

 - (a) the SCM Unit must ensure compatibility, continuity and alignment;
- (3) Services for the routine repair of plant and equipment shall, where possible, be procured by means of annual bids where price is determined in accordance with prescribed work rates.
- (4) When deviating from procurement procedures as stated in 59(1) above, strict compliance with the procurement procedures must be adhered to.

 - (d) the significant interruption of essential services, including transportation, communication or other support services critical to the effective functioning of the KSD as a whole;
 - (e) the real and imminent risk of serious damage occurring to the natural environment;
- (2) The afore stated conditions must be of such a nature and scale that they cannot readily be alleviated by interim measures to permit the implementation of standard procurement procedures.
- (3) An emergency dispensation shall not be approved in respect of any circumstances other than those contemplated in subsection 60(1).
- (4) Where possible, three quotes must be obtained, in accordance with general acquisition management principles, and a report must be submitted to the accounting officer for approval.

- 65. (1) Requests for extension of contracts must be considered by the municipal manager or the delegated authority.

- (2) Any extension of a contract must be done in accordance with the provisions of the contract itself and in compliance with the KSD's delegation policy, provided that:
- (a) the requirements of section 33 of the MFMA are met; and
 - (b) the extension of the contract does not amount to the provision of new goods or services, such that the purposes of this policy are defeated.
 - (c) Project Managers must as far as possible refrain from extending/expanding contracts and/or allowing variation orders as it increases the risks, reflects possible flaws in the planning process and it creates an uncompetitive environment, possibly unfairly prejudicing other possible vendors.
 - (d) The extension of a contract must be finalised before the current expiry date of the contract.
 - (e) Municipal Manager may extend service related contracts by a maximum of 15% and infrastructure related by 20% without going through the Council as per S(33) of the MFMA..

Renewal of contracts

66. (1) The renewal of contracts must be treated in accordance with the principles set out in section 62,
- (2) In the case of computer software renewals/license fees, it is normally required that KSD pay renewal / license fees for the continual use of the product. The Accounting Officer or the delegated authority must approve such renewals/license fees.

67. (1) In accordance with section 113 of the MFMA there is no obligation to consider unsolicited bids received outside a normal bidding process.
- (2) The accounting officer may decide in terms of section 113(2) of the MFMA to consider an unsolicited bid, but only if –
- (a) the product or service offered in terms of the bid is a demonstrably or proven unique innovative concept;
 - (b) the product or service will be exceptionally beneficial to, or have exceptional cost advantages for, the Municipality;
 - (c) the person who made the bid is the sole provider of the product or service; and
 - (d) the reasons for not going through the normal bidding processes are found to be sound by the accounting officer.
- (3) In this regard, the SCM Unit must submit a report to the accounting officer, seeking approval to take the unsolicited bid process further.

- (4) If the accounting officer decides to consider an unsolicited bid that complies with subsection (2) of this policy, then the decision must be made public in accordance with section 21A of the Municipal Systems Act, together with –
 - (a) reasons as to why the bid should not be open to other competitors;
 - (b) an explanation of the potential benefits for the Municipality if the unsolicited bid were accepted; and
 - (c) an invitation to the public or other potential suppliers to submit their comments within 30 days of the notice.
- (5) For purposes of transparency and fairness, an unsolicited bid must be advertised for fourteen (14) days, requesting proposals from other interested parties, provided that:
 - (a) the request for proposal must be of a standard format and must not prejudice the intellectual property rights of the unsolicited bidder; and
 - (b) prior to advertising the unsolicited bid, the bidder will be informed of the Municipality's intention in this regard.
- (6) All written comments received pursuant to subsection (4), including any responses from the unsolicited bidder, must be submitted to the National Treasury and the relevant provincial treasury for comment.
- (7) The adjudication committee must consider the unsolicited bid and may award the bid or make a recommendation to the accounting officer, depending on its delegations.
- (8) A meeting of the adjudication committee to consider an unsolicited bid must be open to the public.
- (9) When considering the matter, the adjudication committee must take into account –
 - (a) any comments submitted by the public; and
 - (b) any written comments and recommendations of the National Treasury or the relevant provincial treasury.
- (10) If any recommendations of the National Treasury or provincial treasury are rejected or not followed, the accounting officer must submit to the Auditor General, the relevant provincial treasury and the National Treasury the reasons for rejecting or not following those recommendations.
- (11) Such submission must be made within seven (7) days after the decision on the award of the unsolicited bid is taken, but no contract committing the Municipality to the bid may be entered into or signed within 30 days of the submission.
- (12) The Municipality reserves the right to award the bid to any third party who responds to the request for a proposal, subject to the principles contained in this policy.

- (13) The Municipality may reject any bidder who submits an unsolicited bid prepared on the basis of privileged or confidential information.

Ratification of minor breaches of procurement processes

68. Any minor breaches of the procurement processes which are purely of a technical nature, and which are perpetrated by an official or committee acting in terms of delegated powers or duties, shall be reported to the accounting officer for ratification.

Obligation to report

69. All deviations from procurement processes, as described in terms of section 59, shall be recorded and reported by the accounting officer to Council quarterly, and shall be included as a note to the annual financial statements.

Contracts having budgetary implications beyond three financial years

70. The KSD may not enter into any contract that will impose financial obligations beyond the three years covered in the annual budget for that financial year, unless the requirements of section 33 of the MFMA have been fully complied with.

CHAPTER 6

APPOINTMENT OF CONSULTANTS

Introduction

71. The purpose of this chapter is to explain the procedures for selecting, contracting, and monitoring consultants required for projects. In general, the procedures described in the previous chapters apply. Only the peculiarities of appointing consultants are dealt with herein, as the services to which these procedures apply are of an intellectual and advisory nature.

Where a conflict in interpretation or application arises between the contents of this chapter and the provisions contained elsewhere in this policy, the latter shall prevail.

Consultants Defined

72. (1) The term consultants includes consulting firms, engineering firms, construction managers, management firms, procurement agents, inspection agents, auditors, other multinational organizations, investment and merchant banks, universities, research agencies, government agencies, non-governmental organizations (NGO's), and individuals.
- (2) Accounting officers may use the organizations listed in subsection 69(1) above as consultants to help in a wide range of activities such as policy advice, accounting officer's/authority's reform management, engineering services, construction supervision, financial services, procurement services, social and environmental studies, and identification, preparation, and implementation of projects to complement accounting officers' capabilities in these areas.

Need for appointment

73. Consultants should only be engaged when –
- (a) the necessary skills and/or resources to perform a project/duty/study are not available; and
 - (b) the accounting officer cannot be reasonably expected either to train or to recruit people in the time available.

Nature of appointment

74. (1) Appointment by means of a formal contract
- (a) The relationship between the accounting officer and the consultant should be one of purchaser/provider and not employer/employee.
 - (b) The work undertaken for the accounting officer by a consultant should be regulated by a contract.
 - (c) In procuring consulting services the accounting officer should satisfy himself/herself that:

- (i) the procedures to be used will result in the selection of consultants who have the necessary professional qualifications;
- (ii) the selected consultant will carry out the assignment in accordance with the agreed schedule, and
- (iii) the scope of the services is consistent with the needs of the project.

(2) Selection methods for the appointment of consultants

- (a) The accounting officer should be responsible for preparing and implementing the project, for selecting the consultant, awarding and subsequently administering the contract, as well as for the payment of consulting services under the project.
- (b) While the specific rules and procedures to be followed for employing consultants depend on the circumstances of the particular case, at least the following four major considerations should guide the accounting officer on the selection process:
 - (i) the need for high-quality services;
 - (ii) the need for economy and efficiency;
 - (iii) the need to give qualified consultants an opportunity to compete in providing the services; and
 - (iv) the importance of transparency in the selection process.
- (c) The particular method to be followed for the selection of consultants for any given project should be selected by the accounting officer in accordance with the criteria outlined in treasury guidelines.
- (d) The method of selection is determined by the scope of the assignment, the quality of service, the complexity of the assignment and whether assignments are of a standard and routine nature.
- (e) The following are the methods most generally used for the appointment of consultants:
 - (i) Quality and Cost Based Selection (QCBS)
 - (aa) In the majority of cases, the abovementioned major considerations can best be addressed through competition among firms in which the selection is based both on the quality of the services to be rendered and on the cost of the services to be provided, i.e. Quality and Cost-Based Selection (QCBS). This method is used in the event of an assignment not complex or specialized.
 - (bb) Cost as a factor of selection should be used judiciously.

- (cc) The relative weight to be given to the quality and cost should be determined for each case depending on the nature of the assignment.
- (dd) Investment and commercial banks, financial firms, and fund managers hired by accounting officer for the sale of assets, issuance of financial instruments, and other corporate financial transactions, notably in the context of privatization operations, should be selected under QCBS.
- (ee) Auditors typically carry out auditing tasks under well-defined Terms of Reference (TOR) and professional standards. They should be selected according to QCBS, or by the “Least Cost Selection”. When consultants are appointed to execute an audit function on behalf of the accounting officer, the tariffs agreed by the Auditor-General and the South African Institute for Chartered Accountants (SAICA) may be used as a guideline to determine the appropriate tariff or to, determine the reasonableness of the tariffs. These tariffs can be obtained from SAICA’s website under www.saica.co.za. The tariffs are captured in a circular issued by SAICA.
- (ff) In some circumstances, QCBS is not the most appropriate method for selecting consultants, and other methods are more appropriate. This section describes other selection methods and the circumstances under which they are generally appropriate.

(ii) Quality Based Selection (QBS)

- (aa) QBS is appropriate for the following types of assignments:
 - (aaa) complex or highly specialized assignments for which consultants are expected to demonstrate innovation in their proposals (for example, financial sector reforms) for which it is difficult to define TOR and the required input from the consultants, and for which the client expects the consultants to demonstrate innovation in their proposals (for example, country economic or sector studies, multi-sectoral feasibility studies, design of a hazardous waste remediation plant or of an urban master plan, financial sector reforms);
 - (bbb) Assignments that have a high downstream impact and in which the objective is to have the best experts (for example, feasibility and structural engineering design of such major infrastructure as large dams, policy studies of national significance, management studies of large government agencies); and
 - (ccc) assignments that can be carried out in substantially different ways, such that proposals will not be comparable (for example, management advice, and sector and policy studies in which the value of the services depends on the quality of the analysis).

- (bb) In QBS, the Request for Proposals (RFP) may request submission of a technical proposal only (without the financial proposal), or request submission of both technical and financial proposals at the same time, but in separate envelopes (two-envelope system). The RFP should not provide the estimated budget, but it may provide the estimated number of key staff time, specify that this information is given as an indication only, and that consultants should be free to propose their own estimates.
- (cc) If technical proposals alone were invited, after evaluating the technical proposals using the same methodology as in QCBS, the accounting officer should request the consultant with the highest ranked technical proposal to submit a detailed financial proposal. The accounting officer and the consultant should then negotiate the financial proposal and the contract. All other aspects of the selection process should be identical to those of QCBS. If, however, consultants were requested to provide financial proposals initially together with the technical proposals, safeguards should be built in to ensure that the price envelope of only the selected proposal is opened and the rest returned unopened, after the negotiations are successfully concluded.

(iii) Selection under a fixed budget

The method is appropriate only when the assignment is simple and can be precisely defined and when the budget is fixed. The RFP should indicate the available budget and request the consultants to provide their best technical and financial proposals in separate envelopes, within the budget. The TOR should be particularly well prepared to ensure that the budget is sufficient for the consultants to perform the expected tasks. Evaluation of all technical proposals should be carried out first as in the QCBS method where after the price envelopes should be opened in public. Proposals that exceed the indicated budget should be rejected. The consultant who has submitted the highest ranked technical proposal should be selected and invited to negotiate a contract.

(iv) Least-cost selection

This method is more appropriate to selection of consultants for assignments of a standard or routine nature (audits, engineering design of noncomplex works, and so forth) where well-established practices and standards exist, and in which the contract amount is small. Under this method, a “minimum” qualifying mark for the “functionality” is established. Proposals to be submitted in two envelopes are invited. Potential suppliers may be obtained from the list of approved service providers. Technical envelopes are opened first and evaluated. Those securing less than the minimum mark should be rejected and the financial envelopes of the rest are opened in public. The firm with the highest points should then be selected. Under this method, the qualifying minimum mark should be established, keeping in mind that all proposals above the minimum compete only on “cost” and the minimum mark to qualify should be stated in the RFP.

(v) Single-source selection

- (aa) Single-source selection of consultants does not provide the benefits of competition in regard to quality and cost and lacks transparency in selection, and could encourage unacceptable practices. Therefore, single-source selection should be used only in exceptional cases. The justification for single-source selection should be examined in the context of the overall interests of the client and the project.
- (bb) Single-source selection may be appropriate only if it presents a clear advantage over competition:
 - (aaa) for tasks that represent a natural continuation of previous work carried out by the firm;
 - (bbb) where rapid selection is essential (for example, in an emergency operation);
 - (ccc) for very small assignments; or
 - (ddd) when only one firm is qualified or has experience of exceptional worth for the assignment.

- (cc) The reasons for a single-source selection must be recorded and approved by the accounting officer or his/her delegate prior to the conclusion of a contract.
- (dd) When continuity for downstream work is essential, the initial RFP should outline this prospect and if practical, the factors used for the selection of the consultant should take the likelihood of continuation into account. Continuity in the technical approach, experience acquired, and continued professional liability of the same consultant may make continuation with the initial consultant preferable to a new competition, subject to satisfactory performance in the initial assignment. For such downstream assignments, the accounting officer should ask the initially selected consultant to prepare technical and financial proposals on the basis of TOR furnished by the accounting officer, which should then be negotiated.
- (ee) If the initial assignment was not awarded on a competitive basis or was awarded under tied financing or reserved procurement or if the downstream assignment is substantially larger in value, a competitive process acceptable to the accounting officer should normally be followed in which the consultant carrying out the initial work is not excluded from the consideration if it expresses interest.

(vi) Selection based on consultants' qualifications

This method may be used for very small assignments for which the need for preparing and evaluating competitive proposals is not justified. In such cases, the accounting officer should prepare the TOR, request expressions of interest and information on the consultants' experience and competence relevant to the assignment and select the firm with the most appropriate qualifications and references. Potential suppliers may be obtained from the list of accredited service providers. The selected firm should be requested to submit a combined technical-financial proposal and then be invited to negotiate the contract.

(vii) Selection of individual consultants

- (aa) Individual consultants may normally be employed on assignments for which:
 - (aaa) teams of personnel are not required;
 - (bbb) no additional outside (home office) professional support is required; and
 - (ccc) the experience and qualifications of the individual are the paramount requirement.
- (bb) When coordination, administration, or collective responsibility may become difficult because of the number of individuals, it would be advisable to employ a firm.

- (cc) Individual consultants should be selected on the basis of their qualifications for the assignment. They may be selected on the basis of references or through comparison of qualifications among those expressing interest in the assignment or approached directly by the accounting officer. Individuals employed by the accounting officer should meet all relevant qualifications and should be fully capable of carrying out the assignment. Capability is judged on the basis of academic background, experience and, as appropriate, knowledge of the local conditions, such as local language, culture, administrative system, and local government environment.
- (dd) From time to time, permanent staff or associates of a consulting firm may be available as individual consultants. In such cases, the conflict of interest provisions described in these guidelines should apply to the parent firm.

(viii) Selection of particular types of consultants

(aa) Use of Nongovernmental Organisations (NGO's)

NGO's are voluntary non-profit organizations that may be uniquely qualified to assist in the preparation, management, and implementation of projects, essentially because of their involvement and knowledge of local issues, community needs, and/or participatory approaches. NGO's may be included in the short list if they express interest and provided that the accounting officer is satisfied with their qualifications. For assignments that emphasise participation and considerable local knowledge, the short list may comprise entirely NGO's. If so, the QCBS procedure should be followed, and the evaluation criteria should reflect the unique qualifications of NGO's, such as voluntarism, non-profit status, local knowledge, scale of operation, and reputation. An accounting officer may select the NGO on a single-source basis, provided the criteria outlined for single-source selection are fulfilled.

(bb) Inspection agents

Accounting officers may wish to employ inspection agencies to inspect and certify goods prior to shipment or on arrival in the country. The inspection by such agencies usually covers the quality and quantity of the goods concerned and reasonableness of price. Inspection agencies should be registered with the South African National Accreditation System (SANAS) and the services of these inspection agents should be obtained by means of competitive bidding.

(cc) Banks

Investment and commercial banks, financial firms, and fund managers hired by accounting officers for the sale of assets, issuance of financial instruments and other corporate financial transactions, notably in the context of privatization operations, should be selected under QCBS. The RFP should specify selection criteria relevant to the activity – for example, experience in similar assignments or network of potential purchasers – and the cost of the services. In addition to the conventional remuneration (called a “retainer fee”), the compensation includes a “success fee.” This fee can be fixed, but is usually expressed as a percentage of the value of the assets or other financial instruments to be sold. The RFP should indicate that the cost evaluation will take into account the success fee, either in combination with the retainer fee or alone. If alone, a standard retainer fee should be prescribed for all short-listed consultants and indicated in the RFP, and the financial scores should be based on the success fee as a percentage of a pre-disclosed notional value of the assets. For the combined evaluation (notably for large contracts), cost may be accorded as weight higher or the selection may be based on cost alone among those who secure a minimum passing mark for the quality of the proposal. The RFP should specify clearly how proposals will be presented and how they will be compared.

(dd) Auditors

Auditors typically carry out auditing tasks under well-defined TOR and professional standards. They should be selected according to QCBS, with cost as a substantial selection factor, or by the “Least-Cost Selection.” When consultants are appointed to execute an audit function on behalf of the accounting officer, the tariffs agreed by the Auditor-General and the South African Institute for Chartered Accountants (SAICA) may be used as a guideline to determine the appropriate tariff or to determine the reasonableness of the tariffs. These tariffs can be obtained from SAICA’s website under www.saica.co.za. The tariffs are captured in a circular issued by SAICA.

(ee) “Service Delivery Contractors”

Projects in the social sectors in particular may involve hiring of large numbers of individuals who deliver services on a contract basis (for example, social workers, nurses and paramedics). The job descriptions, minimum qualifications, terms of employment and selection procedures should be described in the project documentation.

(ff) Association between consultants

Consultants may associate with each other to complement their respective areas of expertise, or for other reasons. Such an association may be for the long term (independent of any particular assignment) or for a specific assignment. The association may take the form of a joint venture or a sub-consultancy. In case of a joint venture, all members of the joint venture should sign the contract and are jointly and severally liable for the entire assignment. Once the bids or Requests for Proposals (RFP’s) from service providers are issued, any association in the form of joint venture or sub-consultancy among firms should be permissible only with the approval of the accounting officer or his/her delegate. Accounting officers should not compel consultants to form associations with any specific firm or group of firms, but may encourage associations with the aim to enhance transfer of skills.

Invitation of bids/proposals, using QCBS

75. Appointing consultants to assist accounting officers with the execution of their duties implies the procurement of services. In all public sector procurement, the prescripts of the PPPFA, must be adhered to.

(1) Request for bids

In the request for bids the following steps would generally be followed in appointing consultants where clear Terms of Reference (TOR), including a detailed task directive, have been compiled and the objectives, goals and scope of the assignment are clearly defined:

(a) Preparation of Terms of Reference (TOR)

- (i) The accounting officer should prepare the TOR. The scope of services described should be compatible with the available budget. The TOR should define as clearly as possible the task directive (methodology), objectives, goals and scope of the assignment and provide background information (including a list of existing relevant studies and basic data) to facilitate the consultants' preparation of their bids.
- (ii) If the assignment includes an important component for training or transfer of knowledge and skills, the TOR should indicate the objectives, nature, scope, and goals of the training programme, including details on trainers and trainees, skills to be transferred, time frames, and monitoring and evaluation arrangements to enable consultants to estimate the required resources. The TOR should list the services and surveys necessary to carry out the assignment and the expected outputs (for example reports, data, maps, surveys, etc), where applicable.
- (iii) Time frames linked to various tasks should be specified, as well as the frequency of monitoring actions. The respective responsibilities of the accounting officer and the consultant should be clearly defined.
- (iv) A clear indication should be given of the preference point system to be used, as described in terms of the PPPFA and its associated Regulations;
- (v) Detailed information on the evaluation process should be provided and it must be stated whether the tender will be evaluated on functionality as prescribed in section 46.
- (vi) Preparation of a well-thought-through cost estimate is essential if realistic budgetary resources are to be earmarked. The cost estimate should be based on the accounting officer's assessment of the resources needed to carry out the assignment such as staff time, logistical support and physical inputs (i.e. vehicles, laboratory equipment, etc). The cost of staff time must be estimated on a realistic basis for foreign and local personnel.

- (vii) The TOR should specify the validity period (normally 60 – 90 days).
- (viii) In more complicated projects, provision may also be made for pre-bid briefing sessions as part of the evaluation process.
- (ix) The TOR should form part of the standard bid documentation. At this stage the evaluation panel, consisting of least three members who are demographically representative in terms of race, gender and expertise, should also be selected and finalised.

(2) Request for proposals

This method should be followed where selection is based both on the quality of a proposal and on the cost of the service through competition among firms. This method will be applicable on more complex projects where consultants are requested and encouraged to propose their own methodology and to comment on the TOR in their proposals.

(a) Preparation and issue of a Request for Proposal (RFP)

When possible, accounting officers should include at least the following documents in the RFP:

(i) Letter of Invitation (LOI)

The LOI should state the intention to enter into a contract for the provision of consulting services, the details of the client and the date, time and address for submission of proposals.

(ii) Information to Consultants (ITC)

Whenever possible, the accounting officer should use RFPs, which include the ITC covering the majority of assignments. The ITC should contain all necessary information that would assist consultants to prepare responsive proposals. It should be transparent and provide information on the evaluation process by indicating the evaluation criteria and factors and their respective weights and the minimum qualifying score in respect of functionality. A clear indication should be given of which preference points system will be applicable in terms of the PPPFA and its regulations, The budget is not specified (since cost is selection criterion), but should indicate the expected input of key professionals (staff time). Consultants, however, should be free to prepare their own estimates of staff time necessary to carry out the assignment. The ITC should specify the proposal validity period (normally 60 – 90 days).

The ITC should include adequate information on the following aspects of the assignment:

- (aa) a very brief description of the assignment;
- (bb) standard formats for the technical and financial proposals;
- (cc) the names and contact information of officials to whom clarifications should be addressed and with whom the consultants' representative should meet, if necessary;
- (dd) details of the selection procedure to be followed, including:
 - (aaa) a description of the two-stage process, if appropriate;
 - (bbb) a listing of the technical evaluation criteria and weights given to each criterion;
 - (ccc) the details of the financial evaluation;
 - (ddd) the relative weights for quality and cost in the case of QCBS;
 - (eee) the minimum pass score for quality; and
 - (fff) the details on the public opening of financial proposals;
- (ee) an estimate of the level of key staff inputs required of the consultants, and an indication of minimum experience, academic achievement, and so forth, expected of key staff or the total budget, if a given figure can not be exceeded;
- (ff) information on negotiations, and financial and other information that should be required of the selected firm during negotiation of the contract;
- (gg) the deadline for submission of proposals;
- (hh) a statement that the firm and any of its affiliates should be disqualified from providing downstream goods, works or services under the project if, in the accounting officer's judgement, such activities constitute a conflict on interest with the services provided under the assignment;
- (ii) the method in which the proposal should be submitted, including the requirement that the technical proposals and price proposals be sealed and submitted separately in a manner that should ensure that the technical evaluation is not influenced by price;

- (jj) request that the invited firm acknowledges receipt of the RFP and informs the accounting officer whether or not it will be submitting a proposal;
- (kk) the shortlist of consultants being invited to submit proposals, and whether or not associations between short-listed consultants are acceptable;
- (ll) the period for which the consultants' proposals should be held valid (normally 60 – 90 days) and during which the consultants should undertake to maintain, without change, the proposed key staff, and should hold to both the rates and total price proposed; in case of extension of the proposal validity period, the right of the consultants not to maintain their proposal;
- (mm) the anticipated date on which the selected consultant should be expected to commence the assignment;
- (nn) a statement indicating all prices should be VAT inclusive;
- (oo) if not included in the TOR or in the draft contract, details of the services, facilities, equipment, and staff to be provided by the accounting officer;
- (pp) phasing of the assignment, if appropriate; and likelihood of follow-up assignments;
- (qq) the procedure to handle clarifications about the information given in the RFP; and
- (rr) any conditions for subcontracting part of the assignment.

Notes:

- (1) If under exceptional circumstances, the accounting officer needs to amend the standard ITC, he or she should do so through the technical data sheet and not by amending the main text.
- (2) Any granting of a substantial extension of the stipulated time for performance of a contract, agreeing to any substantial modification of the scope of the services, substituting key staff, waiving the conditions of a contract, or making any changes in the contract that would in aggregate increase the original amount of the contract by more than 15% percent, will be subject to the approval of the accounting officer or his/her delegate, and the provisions of this policy.

- (iii) The TOR

The TOR should be compiled by a specialist in the area of the assignment and the scope of services described should be compatible with the available budget. The TOR should define as clearly as possible the objectives, goals and scope of the assignment including background information to facilitate the consultant in the preparation of its proposal. The TOR should be compiled in such a manner that consultants are able to propose their own methodology and staffing and be encouraged to comment on the TOR in their proposal.

Depending on the circumstances, it may be indicated that proposals should be submitted in two separate clearly marked envelopes, one containing the technical proposal and the other the cost for the assignment.

In cases where pre-qualification/short-listing is required, the TOR should indicate the basis of pre-qualification/short-listing, for instance the number of minimum points to be scored to pre-qualify.

(iv) The proposed contract

Accounting officers should use the appropriate Standard Form of Contract issued by the National Treasury. Any changes necessary to address specific project issues should be introduced through Contract Data Sheets or through Special Conditions of Contract and not by introducing changes in the wording of the General Conditions of Contract included in the Standard Form. When these forms are not appropriate (for example, for pre-shipment inspection, training of students in universities), accounting officers should use other acceptable contract forms.

(3) Establishment of a list of approved service providers

- (a) Where consultancy services are required on a recurring basis, a panel of consultants/list of approved service providers for the rendering of these services may be established. The panels/lists should be established through the competitive bidding process, usually for services that are of a routine or simple nature where the scope and content of the work to be done can be described in detail.
- (b) The intention to establish a panel/list of approved service providers is published in the media and on the Municipality's website and the closing time and date for inclusion in the panel/list of approved service providers should be indicated. For this purpose, a questionnaire should be made available and should make provision for the following:
 - (i) composition of the firm in terms of shareholding;
 - (ii) personnel complement;
 - (iii) representation of expertise in respect of the disciplines required, e.g. accounting, legal, educational, engineering, computer, etc;

- (iv) national/international acceptability of experts in the various professions;
- (v) experience as reflected in projects already dealt with;
- (vi) and financial position.

Requirements for admission to the list and criteria should be linked to the numeric value in terms of which applicants will be measured, for example qualifications, experience, acceptability, facilities and resources etc. A pre-determined standard method of awarding points should be followed.

- (c) The applications received should be evaluated and any rejection of applicants should be motivated and recorded.
 - (d) Once the panel/list of service providers has been approved, only the successful applicants are approached, depending on the circumstances, either by obtaining quotes on a rotation basis, or according to the bid procedure when services are required, with the exception that the requirement is not advertised again.
 - (e) This list should be updated continuously, at least quarterly.
- (4) Receipt of proposals
- (a) The accounting officer should allow enough time for consultants to prepare their proposals. The time allowed should depend on the assignment, but normally should not be less than four weeks or more than three months (for example, for assignments requiring establishment of a sophisticated methodology, preparation of a multidisciplinary master plan). During this interval, the firms may request clarification about the information provided in the RFP. The accounting officer should provide clarification in writing and copy them to all firms who intend to submit proposals. If necessary, the accounting officer should extend the deadline for submission of proposals. The technical and financial proposals should be submitted at the same time. No amendments to the technical or financial proposal should be accepted after the deadline. To safeguard the integrity of the process, the technical and financial proposals should be submitted in separate sealed envelopes. The technical envelopes should be opened immediately after the closing time for submission of proposals. The financial proposals should remain sealed until they are opened during the evaluation stage. Any proposal received after the closing time for submission of proposals should be returned unopened.
 - (b) Consultants' role
 - (i) When consultants receive the RFP, and if they can meet the requirements of the TOR, and the commercial and contractual conditions, they should make the arrangements necessary to prepare a responsive proposal (for example, visiting the principal of the assignment, seeking associations, collecting documentation, setting up the preparation team). If the consultants find in the RFP documents – especially in the selection procedure and evaluation criteria – any ambiguity, omission or internal contradiction, or any feature that is unclear or that appears discriminatory or restrictive, they should seek clarification from the accounting officer, in writing, within the period specified in the RFP for seeking clarifications.

- (ii) The specific RFP issued by the accounting officer governs each selection. If consultants feel that any of the provisions in the RFP are inconsistent with the prescripts of the Municipal Supply Chain Management Regulations and/or the PPPFA and its regulations, they should raise this issue with the accounting officer in writing.
- (iii) Consultants should ensure that they submit a fully responsive proposal including all the supporting documents requested in the RFP. Non-compliance with important requirements should result in rejection of the proposal. Once technical proposals are received and opened, consultants should not be required nor permitted to change the substance, the key staff, and so forth. Similarly, once financial proposals are received, consultants should not be required or permitted to change the quoted fee and so forth, except at the time of negotiations carried out in accordance with the provisions of the RFP.

(5) Evaluation of bids/proposals

- (a) Within the ambit of the PPPFA Regulations, bids/proposals for the appointment of consultants should be evaluated on the basis of functionality and price as well as the The evaluation should be carried out in two phases – first the functionality and then the price. The criteria to be used to evaluate tenders on functionality must be made known up-front in the bid documents. Score sheets should be prepared and provided to panel members to evaluate the bids on functionality. In view of impartiality, members of bid committees should not also act as panel members.

The score sheet should contain all the criteria and the weight for each criterion as indicated in the TOR as well as the values to be applied for evaluation. Each panel member should after thorough evaluation award his/her own value to every criterion without discussing any aspect of any bid with any of the other members. Under no circumstances may additional evaluation criteria be added to those originally indicated in the bid documentation nor may the evaluation criteria be amended or omitted after closing of the bid. Score sheets should be signed by panel members and if required, written motivation could be requested from panel members in the event of vast discrepancies in the value awarded for each criterion.

- (b) The evaluation of the proposals should be carried out in two stages: first the functionality (quality) and then the price. The points scored for functionality is not added to the points scored for price.
- (c) The evaluation should be carried out in full conformity with the provisions of the RFP.
- (d) Calculation of percentage for functionality

- (i) Evaluators of technical proposals should not have access to the financial proposals until the technical evaluation is concluded. Financial proposals should be opened only after the technical proposals and only in respect of those proposals that achieved the minimum qualifying score for functionality. In respect of functionality, the accounting officer/authority should evaluate each technical proposal (using an evaluation panel of three or more specialists in that field of expertise) in terms of the specified evaluation criteria that may include the following:
 - (aa) the consultant's relevant experience for the assignment;
 - (bb) the quality of the methodology proposed;
 - (cc) the qualifications of the key staff proposed; and
 - (dd) transfer of knowledge.
- (ii) The accounting officer should normally divide these criteria into sub-criteria, for example, the sub-criteria under methodology might be innovation and level of detail.
- (iii) More weight should be given to the methodology in the case of more complex assignments for example multidisciplinary feasibility or management studies.
- (iv) Evaluation of only "key" personnel is recommended as they ultimately determine the quality of performance. More weight should be assigned to this criterion if the proposed assignment is complex. The accounting officer should review the qualifications and experience of proposed key personnel in their curricula vitae which should be accurate, complete and signed by an authorised official of the consultant and the individual proposed. When the assignment depends critically on the performance of key staff, such as a Project Manager in a large team of specified individuals, it may be desirable to conduct interviews. The individuals can be rated, among others, in the following sub-criteria as relevant to the assignment:
 - (aa) general qualifications: general education and training, length of experience, positions held, time with the consulting firm staff, and experience in developing countries;
 - (bb) adequacy for the assignment: education, training and experience in that specific sector, field or subject relevant to the particular assignment; and
 - (cc) experience in the region: knowledge of the local language, culture, administrative system, government organization, etc.
- (v) Accounting officers should evaluate each proposal on the basis of its response to the TOR. A proposal should be rejected at this stage if it does not respond to important aspects of the TOR or it fails to achieve the minimum qualifying score for functionality as specified in the RFP.

(vi) At the end of the process, the accounting officer should prepare an evaluation report on the quality of the proposals. The report should substantiate the results of the evaluation and describe the relative strengths and weaknesses of the proposals. All records relating to the evaluation such as individual score sheets should be retained until completion of the project and its audit.

(vii) The percentage scored for functionality should be calculated as follows:

Each panel member should award values for each individual criterion on a score sheet. The value scored for each criterion should be multiplied with the specified weighting for the relevant criterion to obtain the marks scored for the various criteria. These marks should be added to obtain the total score. The following formula should then be used to convert the total score to a percentage for functionality:

$$Ps = \frac{So}{Ms \times Ap}$$

where:

Ps = percentage scored for functionality by bid/proposal under consideration
So = total score of bid/proposal under consideration
Ms = maximum possible score
Ap = percentage allocated for functionality

The percentages of each panel member should be added together and divided by the number of panel members to establish the average percentage obtained by each individual bidder for functionality.

After calculation of the percentage for functionality, the prices of all bids that obtained the minimum score for functionality should be taken into consideration.

Bids/proposals that do not score a certain specified minimum percentage for functionality, should be disqualified and not considered further.

(e) Calculation of percentage for price

(i) For the purpose of evaluation, the price shall include all local taxes and other reimbursable expenses such as travel, translation, report printing or secretarial expenses. The proposal with the lowest price will obtain the maximum percentage for price as prescribed in RFP. Proposals with higher prices will proportionally obtain lower percentages according to the method as prescribed in the RFP.

- (ii) The percentage scored for price should be calculated as follows:

The lowest acceptable bid/proposal will obtain the maximum percentage allocated for price. The other bids/proposals with higher prices will proportionately obtain lower percentages based on the following formula:

$$P_s = \frac{P_{min}}{P_t} \times A_p$$

where:

| | | |
|-----------|---|--|
| P_s | = | percentage scored for price by under consideration |
| P_{min} | = | lowest acceptable bid/proposal |
| P_t | = | price of bid/proposal under consideration |
| A_p | = | percentage allocated for price |

- (f) Calculation of points for functionality and price

The points scored for functionality is not added to the points scored for price. Only the bidders that have scored the minimum number of points will be considered further.

Points awarded to a bidder for attaining the B-BBEE status level of contributor are added to the points scored for price in order to obtain a final point. The contract should be awarded to the bidder scoring the highest points.

Information relating to evaluation of bids and recommendations concerning awards should not be disclosed to the consultants who submitted bids or to other persons not officially concerned with the process until the successful consultant is notified.

- (g) Negotiations and award of contract

(i) The Accounting Officer may negotiate the contract only with the preferred bidder identified by means of the competitive bidding process.

(ii) Negotiations should include discussions of the TOR, the methodology, staffing, accounting officer's inputs, and special conditions of the contract. These discussions should not substantially alter the original TOR or the terms of the contract, lest the quality of the final product, its cost, and the relevance of the initial evaluation be affected. Major reductions in work inputs should not be made solely to meet the budget. The final TOR and the agreed methodology should be incorporated in "Description of Services," which should form part of the contract.

(iii) The selected firm should not be allowed to substitute key staff, unless both parties agree that undue delay in the selection process makes such substitution unavoidable or that such changes are critical to meet the objectives of the assignment. If this is not the case and if it is established that key staff were offered in the proposal without confirming their availability, the firm may be disqualified and the process continued with the next ranked firm. The key staff proposed for substitution should have qualifications equal to or better than the key staff initially proposed.

- (iv) Financial negotiations should include clarification of the consultant's tax liability. Before the appointment is finalized, the consultant should submit an original tax clearance certificate to the accounting officer.
 - (v) Proposed unit rates for staff-months and re-imbursables should not be negotiated, since these have already been a factor of selection in the cost of the proposal, unless there are exceptional reasons.
 - (vi) If the negotiations fail to result in an acceptable contract, the accounting officer should terminate the negotiations. The original preferred consultant should be informed of the reasons for termination of the negotiations. Once negotiations are commenced with the next ranked firm, the accounting officer should not reopen the earlier negotiations. After negotiations are successfully completed, the accounting officer should promptly notify other firms that they were unsuccessful.
- (h) Contract award
- (i) According to the prescripts of the PPPFA and its Regulations, a contract may only be awarded to the bidder who scored the highest number of points, unless objective criteria justify the award to another bidder. Should this be the case, the accounting officer should be able to defend the decision not to award the bid to the bidder who scored the highest number of points in any court of law. It should be emphasized that not offering any contributions to prescribed goals as contemplated in the Preferential Procurement Regulations, 2004-2011, does not disqualify a bidder. Under these circumstances a bidder will score no points for the B-BBEE status level of contributor ~~specified goals~~.
 - (ii) The accounting officer should award the contract, within the period of the validity of bids, to the bidder who meets the appropriate standards of capability and resources and whose bid has been determined:
 - (aa) to be substantially responsive to the bidding documents; and
 - (bb) to be the highest on points.
 - (iii) A bidder should not be required, as a condition of award, to undertake responsibilities for work not stipulated in the bidding documents or otherwise to modify the bid as originally submitted.
- (i) Rejection of all proposals and re-invitation

The accounting officer will be justified in rejecting all proposals only if all proposals are non-responsive and unsuitable, either because they present major deficiencies in complying with the TOR, or because they involve costs substantially higher than the original estimate. In the latter case, the feasibility of increasing the budget, or scaling down the scope of services with the firm should be investigated. The new process may include revising the RFP and the budget.

(6) Types of contracts

(a) The relationship between the accounting officer and the consultant should be one of purchaser/provider and not employer/employee. The work undertaken for the accounting officer by a consultant should be regulated by a contract.

(b) When appropriate, the accounting officer may include under the special conditions of contract, the following or similar condition:

“A service provider may not recruit or shall not attempt to recruit an employee of the principal for purposes of preparation of the bid or for the duration of the execution of this contract or any part thereof”.

(c) The most common types of contract are:

(i) Lump Sum (Firm Fixed Price) Contract: Lump sum contracts are used mainly for assignments in which the content and the duration of the services and the required output of the consultants are clearly defined. They are widely used for simple planning and feasibility studies, environmental studies, detailed design of standard or common structures, preparation of data processing systems, and so forth. Payments are linked to outputs (deliverables), such as reports, drawings, bills of quantities, bidding documents and software programmes. Lump sum contracts are easy to KSDinister because payments are due on clearly specified outputs.

(ii) Time-Based Contract: This type of contract is appropriate when it is difficult to define the scope and the length of services, either because the services are related to activities by others for which the completion period may vary, or because the input of the consultants required to attain the objectives of the assignment is difficult to assess. This type of contract is widely used for complex studies, supervision of construction, advisory services, and most training assignments. Payments are based on agreed hourly, daily, weekly or monthly rates for staff (who are normally named in the contract) and on reimbursable items using actual expenses and/or agreed unit prices. The rates for staff include salary, social costs, overheads, fees (or profit), and, where appropriate, special allowances. This type of contract should include a maximum amount of total payments to be made to the consultants. This ceiling amount should include a contingency allowance for unforeseen work and duration and provision for price adjustments, where appropriate. Time-based contracts need to be closely monitored and KSDinistered by the client to ensure that the assignment is progressing satisfactorily and payments claimed by the consultants are appropriate.

- (iii) Retainer and/or Contingency (Success) Fee Contract: Retainer and contingency fee contracts are widely used when consultants (banks or financial firms) are preparing companies for sales or mergers of firms, notably in privatisation operations. The remuneration of the consultant includes a retainer and a success fee, the latter being normally expressed as a percentage of the sale price of the assets.
- (iv) Percentage Contract: These contracts are commonly used for architectural services. They may be used for procurement and inspection agents. Percentage contracts directly relate the fees paid to the consultant to the estimated or actual project construction cost, or the cost of the goods procured or inspected. The contracts are negotiated on the basis of market norms for the services and/or estimated staff-month costs for the services, or competitive bid. It should be borne in mind that in the case of architectural or engineering services, percentages implicitly lack incentive for economic design and are hence discouraged. Therefore, the use of such a contract for architectural services is recommended only if it is based on a fixed target cost and covers precisely defined services (for example, not works supervision).
- (v) Indefinite Delivery Contract (Price Agreement): These contracts are used when accounting officers need to have “on call” specialised services to provide advice on a particular activity. These are commonly used to retain “advisers” for implementation of complex projects (for example, dam panel), expert adjudicators for dispute resolution panels, accounting officer reforms, procurement advice, technical troubleshooting, and so forth, normally for a period of a year or more. The accounting officer and the firm agree on the unit rates to be paid for the experts and payments are made on the basis of the time actually used.

(7) Important provisions

- (a) Currency. RFPs should clearly state that firms must express the price for their services in Rand. If the consultants wish to express the price as a sum of amounts in different foreign currencies, they may do so, provided that the accounting officer/authority concurs with this practice and that the proposal includes no more than three foreign currencies outside the borders of South Africa. The accounting officer should require consultants to state the portion of the price representing local costs in Rand. Payment under the contract should be made in the currency or currencies expressed in the formal contract.
- (b) Price adjustment. To adjust the remuneration for foreign and/or local inflation, a price adjustment provision should be included in the contract if its duration is expected to exceed 12 months. Exceptionally, contracts of shorter duration may include a provision for price adjustment when local or foreign inflation is expected to be high and unpredictable.
- (c) Payment provisions. Payment provisions, including amounts to be paid, schedule of payments, and payments procedure, should be agreed upon during negotiations. Payments may be made at regular intervals (as under time-based contracts) or for agreed outputs (as under lump sum contracts). Payments for advances (for example, for mobilization costs) exceeding 10 percent of the contract amount should normally be backed by advance payment securities. Payments should be made promptly in accordance with the contract provisions. To that end:

- (i) consultants can be paid by the accounting officer;
 - (ii) only disputed amounts should be withheld, with the remainder of the invoice paid in accordance with the contract; and
 - (iii) the contract should provide for the payment of financing charges if payment is delayed due to the client's fault beyond the time allowed in the contract. The rate of charges should be specified in the contract.
- (d) Bid and performance securities. Bid and performance securities are not recommended for consultants' services. Their enforcement is often subject to judgement calls, they can be easily abused and they tend to increase the costs to the consulting industry without evident benefits, which are eventually passed on to the accounting officer.
- (e) Accounting officer contribution. The accounting officer normally assigns members of his or her own professional staff to the assignment in different capacities. The contract between the accounting officer and the consultant should give the details governing such staff, known as counterpart staff, as well as facilities that should be provided by the accounting officer, such as housing, office space, secretarial support, utilities, materials and vehicles. The contract should indicate measures the consultant can take if some of the items cannot be provided or have to be withdrawn during the assignment and the compensation of the consultant will receive in such a case.
- (f) Conflict of interest. The consultant should not receive any remuneration in connection with the assignment except as provided in the contract. The consultant and its affiliates should not engage in consulting activities that conflict with the interests of the client under the contract, and should be excluded from downstream supply of goods or construction of works or purchases of any asset or provision of any other service related to the assignment other than a continuation of the "Services" under the ongoing contract.
- (g) Professional liability. The consultant is expected to carry out its assignment with due diligence and in accordance with prevailing standards of the profession. As the consultant's liability to the accounting officer will be governed by the applicable law, the contract need not deal with this matter unless the parties wish to limit this liability. If they do so, they should ensure that:
- (i) there should be no such limitation in case of the consultant's gross negligence or willful misconduct;
 - (ii) the consultant's liability to the accounting officer in no case be limited to less than the total payments expected to be made under the consultant's contract, or the proceeds the consultant is entitled to receive under its insurance, whichever is higher; and

- (iii) any such limitation may deal only with the consultant's liability toward the client and not with the consultant's liability toward third parties.
 - (h) Staff substitution. During an assignment, if substitution is necessary (for example, because of ill health or because a staff member proves to be unsuitable), the consultant should propose other staff of at least the same level of qualifications for approval by the accounting officer.
 - (i) Applicable law and settlement of disputes. The contract should include provisions dealing with the applicable law and the forum for the settlement of disputes. Should it not be possible to settle a dispute by means of mediation, the dispute may be settled in a South African court of law.
- (8) Evaluation of the performance of consultants
- (a) Consultants should observe due diligence and prevailing standards in the performance of the assignment. The accounting officer should evaluate the performance of consultants appointed in a fair and confidential process. In the case of repeated poor performance, the firm should be notified and provided an opportunity to explain the reasons for it and the remedial action proposed.
 - (b) Consultants should be responsible for the accuracy and suitability of their work. Although accounting officers supervise and review the consultants' work, no modifications should be made in the final documents prepared by the consultants without mutual agreement. In the case of supervision of works, consultants may have more or less authority to supervise, from full responsibility as an independent engineer, to that of advisor to the client with little authority to make decisions, as determined by the accounting officer and captured in the contract agreement between the accounting officer and the consultant.
 - (c) Any granting of a substantial extension of the stipulated time for performance of a contract, agreeing to any substantial modification of the scope of the services, substituting key staff, waiving the conditions of a contract, or making any changes in the contract that would in aggregate increase the original amount of the contract by more than 15 percent, will be subject to the approval of the accounting officer or his/her delegate, and the provisions of this policy.

(9) Disbursements

The responsibility for the implementation of the project and therefore for the payment of consulting services under the project rests solely with the accounting officer.

(10) Confidentiality

- (a) The process of proposal evaluation is to be confidential until the contract award is notified to the successful firm. Confidentiality enables the accounting to avoid either the reality or perception of improper interference. If, during the evaluation process, consultants wish to bring additional information to the notice of the accounting officer, they should do so in writing.
- (b) If consultants wish to raise issues or questions about the selection process, they should communicate directly in writing with the accounting officer in this regard. All such communications should be addressed to the chief of the division for the relevant sector for the accounting officer.
- (c) Communications that the accounting officer receives from consultants after the opening of the technical proposals should be handled as follows:
 - (i) in the case of contracts any communication should be sent to the accounting officer for due consideration and appropriate action; and
 - (ii) if additional information or clarification is required from the consultant, the accounting officer should obtain it and comment on or incorporate it, as appropriate, in the evaluation report.

(11) Debriefing

If after notification of award, a consultant wishes to ascertain the grounds on which its proposal was not selected, it should address its request in writing to the accounting officer. If the consultant is not satisfied with the explanation given by the accounting officer, the consultant may refer this matter to the relevant treasury, Public Protector or court of law.

(12) Conclusion

Selecting a consultant requires a logical and systematic approach to enable the appointment of the most effective and efficient consultants. Selecting the right consultant is essential to be successful in a variety of objectives to be achieved by an institution. The consultant's performance has to be monitored and evaluated in an equally, logical, systematic and objective manner to ensure that the correct decision is made when the consultant is to be utilised in future. The general culture throughout the supply chain management process and specific appointment of consultants should be one of trust, honesty, professionalism and willingness to serve.

System of appointing consultants

76. (1) The accounting officer may procure consulting services provided that any treasury guidelines in respect of consulting services are taken into account when such procurements are made.

The accounting officer must establish an effective system of logistics management in order to provide for the setting of inventory levels, placing of orders, receiving and distribution of goods, stores management, expediting orders, transport management, vendor performance, maintenance and contract KSD administration.

The Logistics management process

78. (1) For stock or inventory items the following functions will amongst others be performed :

Stores management

80. (1) The stores shall operate under the jurisdiction of the Budget and Treasury Office (BTO).
- (2) The BTO must uphold the principles of effective KSD administration, property stock holding and control, product standardization, quality of products and high standards of service levels.

CHAPTER 8
DISPOSAL MANAGEMENT

System of Disposal management

81. (1) The accounting officer must establish an effective system of disposal management for the disposal or letting of assets, including unserviceable, redundant or obsolete assets, subject to sections 14 and 90 of the Act.
- (2) Assets must be disposed of by, inter alia -
- (a) transferring the asset to another organ of state in terms of a provision of the Act enabling the transfer of assets;
 - (b) transferring the asset to another organ of state at market related value or, when appropriate, free of charge;
 - (c) selling the asset; or
 - (d) destroying the asset.
- (3) With regard to the disposal of assets in general -
- (a) immovable property may be sold only at market related prices except when the public interest or the plight of the poor demands otherwise;
 - (b) movable assets may be sold either by way of written price quotations, a competitive bidding process, auction or at market related prices, whichever is the most advantageous;
 - (c) in the case of the free disposal of computer equipment, the provincial department of education must first be approached to indicate within 30 days whether any of the local schools are interested in the equipment; and
 - (d) in the case of the disposal of firearms, the National Conventional Arms Control Committee has approved any sale or donation of firearms to any person or institution within or outside the Republic;
- (4) In connection with the letting of immovable property -
- (a) immovable property must be let at market related rates except when the public interest or the plight of the poor demands otherwise; and
 - (b) all fees, charges, rates, tariffs, scales of fees or other charges relating to the letting of immovable property must be annually reviewed; and
- (5) Where assets are traded in for other assets, the highest possible trade-in price must be negotiated.

The Disposal Management Process

82. (1) For purposes of the disposal management process, the accounting officer must ensure that the following steps are undertaken in respect of movable assets:
- (a) Obsolescence planning must be effected, alternatively depreciation rates per item must be calculated;

- (b) A data base of all redundant assets must be compiled and maintained;
 - (c) Assets identified for disposal must first be inspected for potential re-use;
 - (d) A strategy must be determined for the disposal of assets; and,
 - (e) The actual disposal of assets must be effected in compliance with this chapter.
- (2) Similar steps to those set out in terms of subsection (1) must be undertaken in respect of immovable assets.

CHAPTER 9
SUPPLY CHAIN PERFORMANCE

The performance management process

83. (1) The accounting officer must establish an effective internal monitoring system in order to determine, on the basis of a retrospective analysis, whether the authorised supply chain management processes are being followed and whether the desired objectives are being achieved.
- (2) Performance management shall accordingly be characterized by a monitoring process and retrospective analysis to determine whether:
- (a) proper processes have been followed;
 - (b) value for money has been attained;
 - (c) desired objectives have been achieved;
 - (d) there is an opportunity to improve the processes;
 - (e) suppliers have been assessed and what that assessment is;
 - (f) there has been a deviation from procedures and, if so, what the reasons for that deviation are.

System of supply chain performance

84. For purposes of internal monitoring, at least the following may be considered:
- (a) achievement of objectives;
 - (b) compliance with norms and standards;
 - (c) savings generated;
 - (d) stores efficiency;
 - (e) cost variance per item;
 - (f) possible breaches of contract;
 - (g) cost of the procurement process itself;
 - (h) whether supply chain objectives are consistent with national government's policies;
 - (i) increasingly alignment of material construction standards with international best practice;
 - (j) observance of principles of co-operative governance; and

- (k) reduction of regional economic disparities are promoted.

Performance evaluation of the services provided by a contractor / service provider / supplier contracted by the Municipality

- 85. (1) Performance targets are identified as part of the initial planning for a contract, and set out in the business case and request for bid documentation. Targets are generally associated with cost, timeliness and the quality of products and services to be purchased as the outputs of the contract.
- (2) Officials are expected to monitor and evaluate the contractor's performance on a monthly basis. This is essential in determining whether the requirements are being met and to avoid any future conflicts over unsatisfactory performance.
- (3) Contractors should be required to report to the project manager on progress in accordance with the agreed timeframes and review schedules. The project manager must inform the contractor in writing where there is evidence that the contractor's performance is inadequate or behind schedule. If there is continuing concern that obligations are not being met, advice should be sought immediately .
- (4) Disputes must be resolved promptly and not be allowed to escalate into costly legal battles.
- (5) A copy of all performance reports and reports on contract outcomes should be forwarded to the SCM Unit by the responsible User Department. The SCM Unit must ensure that these reports are available for reference purposes to staff inquiring about a contractor's performance. SCM must consolidate the performance response from the User Department and table to executive committee and Council.

Unsatisfactory performance

- 86. (1) Unsatisfactory performance occurs when performance is not in accordance with the contract. Subject at all times to the terms and conditions of such contract, the contractor must be warned in writing (with a registered letter) that action will be taken against him/her unless he/she complies with the contract and delivers satisfactorily within a specified reasonable period. If the contractor still does not perform satisfactorily despite the warning, a recommendation may be made to the Accounting Officer to cancel the contract.
- (2) If during the guarantee period, a supplier does not comply with the requirements due to faulty material or otherwise, the contractor must be requested to repair or replace the faulty material at his or her cost without delay, and that it must be guaranteed for the same period as the original supplies.
- (3) Continuously communicate unsatisfactory performance to contractors in writing compelling the contractor to perform according to the contract and thus to rectify or to restrain from unacceptable actions.
- (4) If the performance is not rectified, the Project Manager must inform the SCM Unit of this fact.

- (5) Before action is taken in terms of the general conditions of contract or any other special contract condition applicable, the Municipality must warn the contractor that action will be taken in accordance with the contract conditions unless the contractor complies with the contract conditions and delivers satisfactory supplies or services within a specified reasonable time. If the contractor still does not perform satisfactorily despite a final warning, the user Department may make a recommendation to the Accounting Officer or the delegate for the appropriate penalties to be introduced or make a recommendation to the Accounting Officer for the cancellation of the contract concerned.
- (6) When correspondence is addressed to the contractor, reference must be made to the contract number, the item number and the number and date of any relevant invoice, statement or letter received from the contractor. Otherwise the number and date of the order, a short description of the supply or service and details of the destination if applicable, must be supplied.
- (7) When the Municipality has to satisfy its need through another provider (for the contractor's expense), the loss to KSD must always be restricted to the minimum since it is difficult to justify the recovery of unreasonable additional costs from the contractor.
- (8) Record must be kept by the SCM Unit of details of all cases of non-performance by contractors. If rejected supplies are in the possession of the KSD, the contractor must be requested to collect the supplies at his/her own expense, failing which the goods will be sent back and the cost will be for the contractor's account.
- (9) If the company has failed to perform as required by the King Sabata Dalindyebo Local Municipality, the company must be blacklisted upon receiving detailed report signed and approved by the Director concern, Chief Financial Officer and the Accounting Officer.
- (10) The company must further be put on a cooling period of 06 months before getting any job in KSD municipality.
- (11) In absence of such report, no service provider or contractor must be blacklisted or not given job

CHAPTER 10
RISK MANAGEMENT

System of risk management

87. (1) The accounting officer must establish an effective system of risk management for the identification, consideration and avoidance of potential risks in the supply chain management system.
- (2) Managing risk must be part of the Municipality's philosophy, practices and business plans and should not be viewed or practised as a separate activity in isolation from line managers.
- (3) Risk management shall be an integral part of effective supply chain management practice.
- (4) Risk management must include –
- (a) the identification of risks on a case-by-case basis;
 - (b) the allocation of risks to the party best suited to manage such risks;
 - (c) acceptance of the cost of the risk where the cost of transferring the risk is greater than that of retaining it;
 - (d) the management of risks in a pro-active manner and the provision of adequate cover for residual risks; and
 - (e) the assignment of relative risks to the contracting parties through clear and unambiguous contract documentation.

The risk management process

88. (1) The risk management process shall be applied to all stages of supply chain management, be it the conceptual stage, project definition, specification preparation, acquisition approval or implementation to completion.
- (2) Risk management is an integral part of good management of acquisition activities and cannot be effectively performed in isolation from other aspects of acquisition management.
- (3) Appropriate risk management conditions should therefore be incorporated in contracts.

Key principles

89. The key principles of managing risk in supply chain management include:
- (1) early and systematic identification of risk on a case-by-case basis, analysis and assessment of risk, including conflicts of interest and the development of plans for handling them;

- (2) allocation and acceptance of responsibility to the party best placed to manage such risk;
- (3) management of risk in a pro-active manner and the provision of adequate cover for residual risks;
- (4) assignment of relative risks to the contracting parties through clear and unambiguous contract documentation;
- (5) acceptance of the cost of the risk where the cost of transferring the risk is greater than that of retaining it; and
- (6) ensuring that the costs incurred in managing risks are commensurate with the importance of the purchase and the risks to the Municipality's operations.

Guidelines

90. The Municipality shall demonstrate that in its supply chain management:

- (1) there exists a systematic approach to identifying risks including potential conflicts of interest, analyzing their possible likelihood, impacts and consequences and managing those risks as the project proceeds through the phases of pre-bid, post-bid and contract management;
- (2) the integrity and correctness of the process of risk identification analysis, assessment and treatment is such that the relevant municipal department can demonstrate the scope of the risk analysis is appropriate for the stated objectives;
- (3) all pertinent matters and assumptions have been tested adequately and that appropriate risk treatment techniques have been implemented;
- (4) the causes of risk are clearly identified;
- (5) the means of treating the identified risks are apparent;
- (6) the party who accepts the risks also accepts responsibility for management of those risks, except where informed, and objective decisions are taken to share risks;
- (7) alternatives have been evaluated; and
- (8) appropriate conditions are to be incorporated in contracts to avoid or minimize risk including warranties and penalties where appropriate.

Steps in risk management

91. There are six steps in the risk management process, namely:

- (1) establish a framework;
- (2) risk identification;

- (3) risk analysis;
- (4) risk assessment;
- (5) risk treatment; and
- (6) implementation, monitoring and review.

 - (f) to cancel a contract awarded to a person if –
 - (i) the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract; or

- (ii) an official or other role player committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract that benefited that person; and

- (a) the aforestated performance guarantees must be commensurate with the degree of contractual risk to which the Municipality will be exposed;
 - (b) in the case of large and complex contracts, performance guarantees must be requested in order to discourage the submission of irresponsible bids; and,

- (a) a cap on the compensation payable to the service provider; and
 - (b) that such compensation must be performance based.

CHAPTER 11
CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

The contract management process

111. The accounting officer must develop and implement mechanisms to effectively manage important aspects relating to contracts awarded through the supply chain management system of Council. A Municipality cannot operate at all without entering into contracts on a regular basis and the obligations and rights created by the conclusion of these contracts should be managed in order to protect the interests of both the Municipality and the other contracting party.

The concept of contract management

112. Contract management consists of the process that enables the Municipality, as a party to a contract, to protect its own interests and to ensure that it complies with its duties, as agreed upon in the contract. Non-performance or inadequate performance of these will compromise the municipality's legal position and will have a detrimental impact on the effectiveness of the Municipality, with related financial losses.

The process to manage contracts properly involves the following distinct aspects: the KSD administration process, and the delivery or performance process.

- (1) The KSD administration process

This process encompasses the totality of the KSD administrative management of contracts, which includes the following:

- (a) Centralised registering point

All contracts concluded must be recorded in a register. The contract register should preferably contain the following information:

- [i] name of party;
- [ii] type of contract (lease, loan, encroachment, etc);
- [iii] date concluded (this refers to the date on which the contract comes into operation and not the date of signing of the contract);
- [iv] date of expiry; and contract price.

- [v] action date (this indicates the ideal date on which action must be taken in order to either renew the existing contract or to implement appropriate action prior to termination of the contract).

The contract register must be kept electronically and in alphabetical order. All new contracts that have been entered into must immediately be recorded in the register. Contracts that have expired or no longer exist for whatever reason must be removed from the register and be recorded on a register or list for canceled or terminated agreements.

(b) Reproduction and distribution of contracts

Once a contract is signed copies must be made and:

- [i] be placed in the relevant file;
- [ii] be furnished to relevant departments under cover of a memorandum. If, for example, the contract places a duty on the Budget and Treasury Office and the Infrastructure Department, copies must be furnished to those departments;
- [iii] the original document must be dealt with as indicated in subsection (1)(d) below; and
- [iv] an original contract must be furnished to the other party.

(c) Safekeeping of contracts

- [i] The original contract must always be archived centrally.
- [ii] It must be placed in a special file separate from other documents, which must be stored in a locked cabinet that is situated in a strong room.
- [iii] Only one official must exercise control over original contracts.
- [iv] Original contracts should preferably not be made available to persons other than the parties to the contract. If a third party is authorized to have sight of the contract, such third party must sign for receipt of the contract.

(d) Contract formalisation

- (1) This process includes the preparation of contracts to be entered into by the Municipality. Either the Municipality or the other party will have to prepare the prospective contract. It is normally the lessor, seller, principal, etc. who prepares the contract, but not necessarily. Circumstances will dictate who will ultimately prepare the contract.
- (2) The contract should be written in English or in any other language chosen by the parties, and proper contract documents should be used.
- (3) Contracts should be signed, after mutual consensus, by all parties to the contract.

- (4) All agreements regarding the supply of goods and services to the Municipality must be concluded in writing.
- (5) Copies of the original contract must be made and must be kept in a secure place, as indicated in subsection (1)(d) above.
- (6) The SCM unit should notify the contract management section of the award of the contract.
- (7) The following factors should be taken into consideration when a decision is to be taken on the possible outsourcing of the drafting of a contract:
 - (i) nature of the contract;
 - (ii) complexity
 - (iii) capacity of human resources;
 - (iv) whether it is a familiar type of contract;
 - (v) importance of the contract; and
 - (vi) costs involved if it is outsourced.

(e) Approval of contracts

All contracts to be concluded by the Municipality must be approved by the accounting officer or the delegated official. All contracts must indicate the name of the responsible person delegated by the accounting officer to sign on his or her behalf. The full name and signature of the accounting officer or responsible person in question must be added in the space provided. No official can sign on behalf of someone else unless properly authorized to do so.

(f) Signing of contracts

The signing of a contract takes place as soon as possible after the approval thereof. The following must be prudently adhered to when a contract is signed:

- (i) the representative of the Municipality must have the required authority to sign the contract;
- (ii) if the other party is a company, a close corporation, partnership or other form of legal entity, then a written resolution must be produced and attached to the contract, authorizing the signatory to sign on behalf of the other party;
- (iii) that the contract is signed with a pen using indelible ink;
- (iv) that the contract is signed in the presence of two witnesses; and

- (vi) that a sufficient number of copies of the original contract are made for the parties involved.
- (h) Expiry or termination of contracts

The following action is required when a contract is terminated:

 - (i) The Municipality must ensure that it notifies the other contracting party, in writing, of the imminent expiry of the contract.
 - (ii) The notification referred to above must contain the information required in terms of the contract.
 - (iii) When an option to renew has been granted to the other contracting party, such party must be notified of such option in writing, and well in advance of the date on which he, she or it is required to exercise the option.
 - (iv) The termination of a contract prior to its expiry date can take place in any of the following ways:
 - (aa) in accordance with a termination clause;
 - (bb) as a consequence of the breach of contract by either party;
 - (cc) death of a party;
 - (dd) destruction of the object of the contract;
 - (ee) where the parties become one party, e.g. when two or more municipalities amalgamate;
 - (ff) by operation of law; and
 - (gg) where the cause of the relationship in terms of the contract ceases to exist, for whatever reason.
 - (v) Termination of a contract must be done strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the termination clause.
 - (vi) Termination of a contract, for whatever reason, must be dealt with judiciously and in consultation with the KSD's legal advisor.
 - (vii) As indicated in subsection (1)(b) above, all terminated contracts must be clearly indicated as such in a separate register.

(2) Delivery or performance process

This process commences as soon as a contract is concluded. The parties are entitled to exercise their respective rights and are obliged to fulfill the duties stipulated in the contract. The nature of management required will ultimately depend upon the type of each individual contract. In some cases, contracts can be managed adequately with little involvement, whilst in other cases proper management without a competent project team is impossible. A good example of the latter is capital projects or service delivery agreements of considerable extent.

The nature of a contract will also indicate which department of the Municipality will be required to accept responsibility for the successful implementation of the project.

Circumstances will dictate the responsibility of the various departments involved and what level of management will be required.

Managing contracts

113. (a) The Municipality must ensure that contracts are KSD administered in terms of the specifications and conditions contained in the contract, as well as any applicable legal provisions of a general nature. The management must be performed by the user department and monthly reports submitted to SCM consolidation.
- (b) The contract must be implemented according to proposed strategy, with reference to the budget, strategic and procurement plan.
 - (c) The contract register for the Municipality should be checked on a regular basis to ensure that it is up to date and accurate.
 - (d) The outcomes of a contract must be monitored with reference to any documented expectations to ensure that the benefits realized by the Municipality are in line with such expectations.
 - (e) The lifespan of the project must be monitored in line with the available budget approved.
 - (f) Delivery must be assessed on the basis of the signed contract.
 - (g) Orders are to be monitored continuously to ensure proper supply and delivery in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contract.
 - (h) The Municipality must ensure that all parties to the contract observe acceptable ethical standards.
 - (i) Necessary approval from the accounting officer and the Chief Financial Officer, for non-contractual price adjustments, must be obtained, provided that such adjustments are lawful and not in contravention of the principles contained in this policy.
 - (j) Contractual price adjustments may be considered, provided that these are in line with the terms and conditions of the contract and the supplier provides documentary proof or an audited certificate of price adjustments claimed to warrant such an adjustment.
 - (k) Subject to the terms and conditions of the contract, the supplier or successful bidder must, within 30 days of the formation of the contract, provide security in the amount specified. Similarly, the supplier or successful bidder must provide a warranty for the goods and services to be provided.

- (l) If it was a condition of the bid invitation that the bidder or contractor must allow the Municipality to carry out inspections, tests and analysis, then the bidder must be open, at all reasonable hours, for such inspection, tests or analysis by the Municipality. The inspection, testing and analysis of any contract for supplies is recommended and may be rejected for non-compliance.
- (m) The Municipality must ensure that payment to a service provider is made in accordance with contract terms and conditions, and only after proper delivery of the goods or services and upon receipt of an invoice.
- (n) Goods and services should be provided by a service provider in accordance with the time schedule and quality specifications stipulated in the contract. A delay should be explained by the service provider in writing and may result in the imposition of penalties by the institution. The implementation of penalties for non-delivery must be adhered to.
- (o) Once a contract has been concluded, a close out report must be compiled.
- (p) The Municipality must ensure that the service provider does not assign or sub-contract a portion or the whole contract to another party without the approval of the Municipality.
- (q) Subject to the terms and conditions of the contract, the Municipal Manager, Chief Financial Officer and Bid Adjudication Committee may terminate the contract for non-performance.
- (r) Any breach of contract must be clearly documented and reported to SCM and the Municipal Manager.

114

(3) (a) All contracts referred to in subsection (1) and all other contracts that impose a financial obligation on a municipality—

(i) must be made available in their entirety to the municipal council; and

(ii) may not be withheld from public scrutiny except as provided for in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000).

(b) Paragraph (a)(i) does not apply to contracts in respect of which the financial obligation on the municipality is below a prescribed value.

CHAPTER 14
EXPANDED PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAMME (EPWP) AND CONTRACTOR DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME.

General

124. (1) The Expanded Public Works Programme (EPWP) is founded on the principle that the Implementing Agent (National or Provincial Department, state owned enterprise, Municipality or municipal entity) is responsible for identifying and implementing suitable projects in accordance with the published EPWP Guidelines.

(2) The EPWP is a programme that cuts across all departments and spheres of government. Work opportunities will be provided in the following ways:

(a) Infrastructure sector

Increasing the labour intensity of government-funded infrastructure projects. The infrastructure sector incorporates a large-scale initiative to use labour-intensive methods to upgrade rural and municipal roads, municipal pipelines, and storm-water drains. People living in the vicinity of these infrastructure projects are employed by contractors to carry out the work. In addition, emerging contractors will participate in Construction Education and Training Authority (CETA)-registered learnerships to gain the necessary skills to build this infrastructure labour-intensively. The Municipality shall arrange for access to finance for learner contractors.

Labour-intensive construction methods involve the use of an appropriate mix of labour and machines, with a preference for labour where technically and economically feasible, without compromising the quality of the product. International and local experience has shown that, with well-trained supervisory staff and an appropriate employment framework, labour-intensive methods can be used successfully for certain types of infrastructure projects. Labour-intensive infrastructure projects under the EPWP involve:

- (i) using labour intensive construction methods to provide employment opportunities to local unemployed people;
- (ii) providing training or skills development to those locally employed workers; and
- (iii) building cost-effective and quality assets.

(b) Environmental sector

Creating work opportunities in public environmental programmes (e.g. Working for Water).

The environmental sector's contribution to the EPWP involves employing people to work on projects to improve their local environments, under programmes such as the Department of Agriculture's Land Care programme; the Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism's People and Parks, Coastal Care, Sustainable Land-based Livelihoods, Cleaning up SA, and Growing a Tourism Economy programmes; and the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry's Working for Water, Working for Wetlands, and Working on Fire programmes.

(c) Social sector

Creating work opportunities in public social programmes (e.g. community-based health and social welfare care and early childhood development).

The social sector contributes to the EPWP by employing people, through NGOs and CBOs, to work on home-based care and early childhood development programmes. These programmes will be coordinated by the Departments of Social Development, Health and Education.

(d) Economic sector:

Developing small businesses and cooperatives, including utilising general government expenditure on goods and services to provide the work experience component of small enterprise learnership / incubation programmes.

The EPWP process

125. (1) The KSD will identify specific infrastructure projects to ensure that it implements the EPWP within the organization. The projects targeted for this programme will be in line with the EPWP programme.
- (2) The Municipality will provide guidance on the:
- (a) identification of suitable projects;
 - (b) appropriate design for labour-intensive construction;
 - (c) the specification of labour-intensive works; and
 - (d) the compilation of contract documentation for labour-intensive projects.
- (3) The monitoring and reporting of the KSD's EPWP by the PMU Unit on a quarterly basis will be supported by an efficient and effective information management system. The type of information that will be monitored on an ongoing basis will include the following six key indicators:
- (a) job opportunity;
 - (b) person years of employment, with segregated data for youth, women, disabled (YWD) in format of benchmark, actual to date and projections;
 - (c) project budgets, actual expenditure, expenditure projections (cashflows);

- (d) demographic data;
 - (e) project wage rate; and
 - (f) cluster budgets, actual expenditure, project across all sectors.
- (5) The employment of locally employed temporary workers on all EPWP labour-intensive infrastructure projects must be in accordance with the Code of Good Practice for Employment and Conditions of Work for Special Public Works Programmes issued in terms of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, 1997 (Act No. 75 of 1997) and promulgated in Government Gazette Notice No. P64 of 25 January 2002.

CHAPTER 15
VARIATION ORDERS

Introduction

127. Variation orders (VO's), also called Contract Instructions, are regularly issued to contractors or service providers. Examples of circumstances that can lead to a variation are listed below:
- (a) An extension of time needs to be given to a contractor for the completion of a project as a result of circumstances outside his or her control, such as excessive rainfall. Such an extension of time will have a cost implication because the contractor's overhead costs will increase. The contract amount must therefore be increased to compensate the contractor for the additional unforeseen costs.
 - (b) During the excavation it was found that more rock needed to be excavated than allowed for when the quantities for the different work items were calculated and included in the project tender. This sort of situation is not uncommon because it is impossible to determine the exact quantities for all excavation due to uncertainty on ground conditions. In this instance the contractor will have to be compensated for his increased costs, and a variation to the contract must be issued.

Process to get variation orders (VO) approved

128. (1) contracts may be expanded or varied by not more than 20% for construction related goods, services and/or infrastructure projects and 15% for all other goods and/or services of the original value of the contract and are to be approved by the Accounting officer. Furthermore, anything beyond the abovementioned thresholds must be reported to the council.
